March 21, 1913.
Having bought a bottle of Mackey's Liniment of Miss Tooley and tried it for rheumatism on my son, found it all that was needed. I will recommend it to any one for such troubles or neuralgia.

MRS. N. M. HENDERSON.
Dear Sir: I have used only one bottle of the Mackey's Liniment during the illness of my wife with the influenza disease and I must say that it brought her through safely.

CHICAGO WELCOMES YOU.

Chicago, Dec. 17.—The National Convention of the Republican Party will hold its next convention in Chicago, beginning Tuesday, June 8, 1920. It will be the fifth consecutive time that the greatest of all conventions has met here, and undoubtedly, it will be the most notable, 1908 and 1912 not excepted. The greatest issues ever brought before the American people will be enunciated in the famous Coliseum next June. The Republican party will be forced, by the impelling demands of the times, to declare itself unmistakably on the great principles of justice, manhood rights and economic progress.

Ever since the National Convention of 1904 the colored citizen, as a real factor in national conventions, has been slipping. He has answered "present" in large numbers, but he has actually been, more than less, "persona non grata," and it has been a pity to observe the way many of the big white leaders have played hide and seek with him around the Congress hotel.

It will be remembered that in 1896, when the master political leaders, Marcus A. Hanna, of Cleveland, was engineering the political fortunes of William McKinley, of Canton, O., our leaders were the real forces in the St. Louis convention. Mr. Hanna had implicit confidence in George A. Myers, proprietor of the well known Hamilton Barber Shop, of Cleveland, and Mr. Myers handled the "brother" in Napoleon Bonaparte fashion. In 1900, in Baltimore, Harry S. Cummings, a member of the City Council of Baltimore, leaped into the limelight by being selected to second and the second nomination of President McKinley at Philadelphia convention. That was the last of the real public recognition by the G. O. P. As proof of our "slipping," it will be recalled that John R. Lynch, of Mississippi, was selected as temporary chairman of the national convention in 1884, in Chicago. Can you imagine a citizen of our group being selected to such an honorary place in 1920? "There was wonderful days."

In 1912, the last colored National Committeeman, Hon. Judson Lyons, former registrar of the U. S. Treasury, was given the bounce and since that day none of the ebony blood has graced the sacred portals of the party's interim factotums. Perry W. Howard, of Mississippi gave them a terrible scare, however, in St. Louis. The majority of the "old guard," such as Crum and Vance and Brown—have gone to their reward—which we hope is more than they got from the G. O. P.—but there are "still some few remaining"—Lewis, Dancy, Tyler, Andrews, Cohen, et al., but they are getting "slow of step."

There is a new day, and a new generation, and a new group of young political stalwarts who, wise to the past, skeptical of the present and deeply concerned with the future, are going to ask for a real old fashioned showdown in the year of Our Lord, 1920. They have sentiment and they, also, have sense, and they are saying that the old, ancient and honorable talk about the "Negroes' debt to the Republican party" doesn't mean a thinker's dam to them, and hasn't a thing to do with Fourth of July. The thing they wish to know, and know indeed is: "Where do we come in?" That's what they are going to find out. And in that list are such "good fellows"—Lewis, Dancy, Tyler, Andrews, Cohen, et al., but they are getting "slow of step."

The first big show of this "new regime" will be pulled off in Chicago, Lincoln's birthday, February 12, Lincoln's birthday, when the Lincoln League, Col. Roscoe Conkling Simmons, president, will hold a national session. It has been announced that not only will the great of our group from every section be on hand, but that great economic, industrial and political leaders of the other group, including no less than three United States senators and two sure enough governors, will be here, and have their say about human rights and Americanism, 1920 brand.

Chicago will have "Welcome" on the door for both the big gatherings, as only Chicago can have it. The visitors will see a new Chicago, in keeping with the principles it is hoped the G. O. P. will endorse and carry out in the party platform. In political progress and commercial achievement, Chicago will have revelations. The most up-to-date business places, the finest hotels, the most beautiful club homes, the most luxurious residences on the finest thoroughfares in the world, and the glad hand of hospitality—sane the old stuff with a kick—will be turned over for the edification and enjoyment of the visitors.

And the final big wonder is: Who stacks up best to "Carry on, Carry on," as National Chairman Will H. Hays, of Hoosierdom says, who is the best to take up his residence on Pennsylvania Ave., Washington, March 4, 1921. "That's the rub." The list is long and interesting: Frank O. Lowden of Illinois; Col. Marshall and Col. Johnson will say: "Leonard Wood, of the American Army," says Maj. John R. Lynch, and he says it with the enthusiasm of a yearling; Governor Coolidge, of Massachusetts; Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, Senator Pointdexter of Washington, Senator Watson and Governor Goodrich of Indiana—of course Indiana would have plenty—Nicholas Murray Butler of New York, who really told the Republican party "the Lord's truth" in Philadelphia, each, all are honorable men.

"But where do we come in?" ask the chorus of young heroes of the new world wide society of "Children of the Sun." That's a fair question, and believe us, if you will talk with this "gang" face to face, and one by one, there will be no question in the mind but what "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth" will be known, backwards and forwards, upwards and downwards, crosswards and sideways, overwards and underwards, when the big bell rings—"DING."

LATHROP, MO.

Mr. Miller Hardin has returned from St. Louis where he has been inspecting mules. Mrs. Merritt McGrunder has returned home after a month's visit in Louisville, Ky., with relatives and friends. Mrs. Jennie Walker of St. Joseph is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Henry Hicks. Mr. Arthur Buckner, who was en route to St. Louis to assist Mr. Hardin in inspecting mules, was the guest of Mrs. Hardin Sunday. Prof. B. B. Tully continues quite ill. Mr. R. A. Shaver of Plattsburg made his annual Christmas gift to Douglas School last week. The presents were all useful and valued from $50 to $200 each. There was no difference in the treatment of white and colored children. The school children of Clinton county should be very grateful to Mr. Shaver. Mr. Fred Hicks and Jerry Armstrong went to St. Joseph Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. Lower Tillman. The Bazaar given at the A. M. E. Church was quite a success. $108.57 was raised. Mrs. Kate Miller, President; Mrs. Edna Mae Weston, Secretary.

COLUMBIA, MO.

Union services will be held at the St. Luke M. E. Church Christmas morning, sermon by Rev. S. L. Brooks, music by choir of the four churches. Those on the sick list do not improve very rapidly. Mr. Gilbert Woods, Mr. Squire Lilly, Mr. Samuel Richardson, Mr. Wallace Lilly are quite sick at this writing. Mrs. Hattie Jackson, wife of Mr. Ben Jackson, was buried last week. Mr. Green Barrett died Sunday morning, December 14. Mr. Victor L. Hicks is home for the holidays and was a worshipper of St. Paul Sunday night. Give your subscription and news items to Mrs. J. Z. Mosley, 301 Garth Avenue. Rev. S. L. Brooks, pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. Church, is preaching the Gospel into the hearts of the people. The attendance is growing and interest increasing. A soul-stirring sermon was preached at the Sunday morning service from Genesis 28:16, text: "Surely the Lord is in this place and I know it not." Text for evening service was taken from Matthew 26:5. Why Stand Ye Here all the day idle? Your subscription to the Kansas City Sun will make a nice Christmas present, see Mrs. J. Z. Mosley for rates. Miss Deborah McBaine and a few of her friends gave a very interesting program Sunday afternoon at St. Paul Church for the Missionary Society.

THREW HER SON INTO SEA; SAID NEGROES DID IT.

James M. Blake, Jr., Was Not Kidnapped, As Mother Told.

So Estranged Wife of Wealthy Philadelphian Is Arrested When Body of Lad Is Washed Ashore at Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 14.—The body of James M. Blake, Jr., 6-year-old son of a wealthy Philadelphia insurance broker, who was declared by his mother to have been kidnapped last Friday night, washed ashore at Ventnor today. Mrs. Blake has been placed under arrest.

Mrs. Blake, who Friday night crawled to the home of Benjamin Fox in Ventnor and told of being attacked by two negroes who, after beating her, robbed her of a handbag and then fled with her child, is charged with the murder of the boy. She was removed from the home of Mrs. A. G. Miller in Ventnor today to the Atlantic City hospital, where she is guarded by a policeman.

The father of the boy was waiting at the Ventnor city police station when the body was brought in. "The only way she can escape the death penalty is by pleading insanity," he said, referring to his wife, then he collapsed.

Felix Payne in City.

Felix Payne of Kansas City, Mo., who was in the city last week making a special trip to attend the Moseley funeral, is the husband of Mrs. Emma Payne, who spent the summer here studying vocal music with Herman Devries, and both have a host of friends in the Windy City. While here Mr. Payne stopped at the Idlewild hotel and was highly entertained.—Chicago Defender.

THE INTER-CITY LITERARY ASSOCIATION OF KANSAS AND THE WEST.

Twenty-Eighth Annual Meeting, Wichita, Kansas, December 29, 30 and 31, 1919.

Mrs. Willa Diggins, President, Kansas City, Kansas.

Mrs. W. W. Caldwell, Corresponding Secretary, 2432 Vine street, Kansas City, Mo.

Prof. Jos. L. Bowler, Chairman Executive Committee, 2413 Gloom avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Three immense centuries—three hundred terrible but expressive years pregnant with the striving of a repressed people—have spent themselves. Therefore, it is particularly important that at this point we should pause, reflect, and survey by detailed inquiry the long drear past. For is not on idealized past a refuge and a solace of the spirit? Our group, above all, must not lose a consciousness of those sacred values which are born with tradition. Some notion, more or less clear and explicit, of our contribution to society, crossed and blurred most assuredly by an ignorant depreciation of our people, is needed as an anchorage of our faith. We live, we struggle, and we fight, but men revile us, because they are blinded by the passion of hate. Baseless charges of every description, founded on an imperfect knowledge of us and an inability to perceive our deeper qualities must give place to the unyielding persistence of the type of men and women who make up the Inter-State Literary Association.

Our Association convenes at the St. Paul A. M. E. Church, Wichita, Kansas, December 29, 30, 31. We hope to make this session the grandest and largest meeting of our existence, for this is our Tercentenary celebration. Is this not worthy of your support? Share with us the joys and the responsibilities of this venerable institution.

The Executive Committee has planned many innovations. A special essay contest will be held, and a prize of $5.00 is offered for the best paper limit (1000 words) on "Effects of Slavery on the American Colored Man." Manuscripts must be in the hands of the Secretary not later than December 15.

Prizes will be offered, as usual, for original music, declamation, poetry and oratory. The presidents of the Race Colleges in the Missouri Valley will be present and address the meeting.

RULES: Literary Societies, Art Clubs, Church Choirs and other uplift organizations are eligible for representation.

Representation consists of three members and three alternates from each society, which may have one number on program. Papers will be limited to ten minutes.

Program numbers should be in the hands of the Corresponding Secretary by December 1st.

FEES: Societies representing in 1917 will pay the usual fee of $1.00; new societies, $1.50. Board and lodging may be had at minimum prices. If you have no literary society, organize one.

Mr. E. J. Hawkins of Fort Scott, Kans., has been elected State Lecturer. The following subjects will be discussed:
